Pelhamites Play Leading Role in Support Group For New Mount Vernon Office of LSHV

Legal Services of the Hudson Valley (LSHV), the principal provider of civil legal services to the indigent in Westchester County, is opening a new office in Mount Vernon on March 7, 2007, and a number of Pelham residents are in the forefront of support for the new facility.

The support group, Friends of the LSHV Mount Vernon Office, has worked to develop pro bono programs and get out the word on the availability of the new services. The members of the group include Frank Muller of Pelham Manor, who won a New York State Bar Association award in 2004 for his pro bono efforts in LSHV's White Plains headquarters.

Other Pelhamites in the LSHV Friends group are Will Cavanagh, Michael Clain, Tim and Nancy Fisher, Steve Flanders, Dick Menaker, Randy Sellier, and Neil and Jamie Swartzfeld. The March 7 opening ceremonies and reception will take place at the new LSHV offices, 100 First Street in downtown Mount Vernon, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. The public is invited and may RSVP to Ann Hyatt, 914-949-1305, ext. 143, or by e-mail to ahyatt@lshv.org
