JOSHUA E. KIMERLING JOINS BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF LEGAL SERVICES OF THE HUDSON VALLEY

(White Plains, New York) Robert Hermann, President of the Board of Legal Services of the Hudson Valley and Of Counsel to Thacher Proffitt and Wood LLP of New York and White Plains, announced that Joshua E. Kimerling, a partner of Cuddy & Feder LLP of White Plains, has joined the Board of Directors of Legal Services of the Hudson Valley. Mr. Hermann said, "Joshua Kimerling brings a wealth of commercial and real estate experience to the Board, and I look forward to working with him in helping our needy client base obtain free civil legal services."

Joshua Kimerling's commercial litigation practice is extensive and diverse, with varied experience in commercial landlord-tenant law, real estate, title and easement matters, contract and corporate disputes, employment-related issues and appellate advocacy. He is admitted to practice in the States of New York and Connecticut, the US District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, and the US Court of Appeals, Second Circuit. He is a member of the American Bar Association and New York State Bar Association.

Mr. Kimerling holds a JD from State University at Buffalo School of Law and obtained his BA Degree from Ithaca College. He lives in Dobbs Ferry, New York.

Legal Services of the Hudson Valley provides free civil legal services to poor and low-income individuals and families. LSHV represents clients in the areas of housing, domestic violence, elder law, civil rights, children's advocacy, disabilities, HIV/AIDS, public benefits, consumer law and education. Services are provided to the residents of Westchester, Putnam, Dutchess, Ulster, Orange, Rockland and Sullivan Counties.
