LEGAL SERVICES OF THE HUDSON VALLEY LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

(White Plains, New York) Legal Services of the Hudson Valley announced today that a new website had been launched for the organization. Robert Hermann, President of the Board of Directors of Legal Services of the Hudson Valley said, “ This new site reflects well our expanded organization which serves poor people in the seven counties of the Hudson Valley.” The website contains information on what free civil legal services we provide to the public, legal resource links, updates on events, an ability to make an online donation, copies of press, bios of key managers, information on fundraising and volunteering for the organization. Barbara Finkelstein, Executive Director of Legal Services of the Hudson Valley, said she is delighted to have a website that provides such extensive information for the public and our clients. The website was designed by Steve Leardi of Leardi Creative in Garrison, New York. The address of the new website is: www.lshv.org.

Legal Services of the Hudson Valley (LSHV) (formerly Westchester/Putnam Legal Services) is a not-for profit organization and has been providing high quality free legal representation and services to poor and low-income individual and families in civil legal matters for over thirty-five years. The services offered help struggling individuals to resolve urgent, non-criminal legal problems that can lead to larger social problems such as homelessness, child neglect and domestic violence. Since LSHV’s inception in 1967, more than 100,000 clients have been served. LSHV provides services in Westchester, Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Sullivan and Ulster Counties in New York. They have offices in White Plains (headquarters office), Yonkers, Poughkeepsie, Newburgh, Mahopac and Kingston, New York.
