OPEN HOUSE RECEPTION IN NEWBURGH, NEW YORK FOR OPENING OF NEW OFFICE OF LEGAL SERVICES OF THE HUDSON VALLEY

Legal Services of the Hudson Valley will be hosting an Open House Reception on Thursday, October 28, 2004 from 3-7 pm to formally announce the grand opening of its Newburgh, NY office. Legal Services of the Hudson Valley (LSHV) is a not-for profit organization formerly known as Westchester/Putnam Legal Services and has been providing high quality free legal representation and services to poor and low-income individual and families in civil matters for over thirty-five years.

Although the central office of LSHV is housed in Westchester County, the organization has been expanding its service area to provide legal representation to those in need throughout the Hudson Valley, including Putnam, Dutchess, Ulster, Orange and Sullivan counties. LSHV officially opened the doors to the Newburgh office this summer and is eager to introduce the community to the not-for-profit's newest office at the October 28th reception. Executive Director of LSHV Barbara Finkelstein will be speaking at the inaugural event and a number of local dignitaries plan to be in attendance. The reception will be held from 3-7pm. If interested in attending, please contact Ann Hyatt, at the number listed above.
