Testimonials

“You were always accessible… you represented us in court… Most importantly you did all this with professionalism, courtesy and genuine concern… If it was not for you and Legal Services of the Hudson Valley, I am not sure what [we] would have done.” Adult daughter of senior facing eviction from her subsidized apartment.

“We prevailed beyond all odds… Thank you Legal Services of the Hudson Valley… You exhibit the belief if we hang in there, we can prevail.” Senior unfairly denied reimbursement for pre-approved medical procedure who was reimbursed after one year and three fair hearings.

Elder Law
Our experienced and dedicated attorneys assist low-to-moderate income seniors with limited resources who are age 60 and older with the following free civil legal services:

Housing Preservation and Advocacy
We represent seniors facing eviction and possible termination of valuable government housing subsidies. We also advocate for disabled seniors in order to obtain accommodations to remain safely at home. We provide training on housing rights to senior groups throughout our service area.

Government Benefits
We advocate for seniors denied government benefits including Social Security benefits, SSI, Medicare, Medicaid, food stamps, unemployment insurance and other public benefits. We also advocate for disabled seniors so that they may maintain their home health care services and age safely in place.

Advance Directives
We assist seniors with the preparation of simple wills, powers of attorney, health care proxies and living wills. We counsel seniors on all aspects of advance planning with compassion and confidentiality. We provide training throughout our service area to help seniors and their families stay informed and plan for future needs.

Elder Abuse
We advocate for vulnerable seniors who are victims of financial, physical, emotional or other abuse and provide representation, including obtaining orders of protection or emergency shelter placement, if necessary.

Consumer Rights
We advocate for seniors’ rights concerning their consumer debt and collection issues. We provide training and advocacy to seniors and their families regarding abusive debt collection practices.

Family Law
We advise seniors on family law issues including support.
