Job Type: STAFF ATTORNEY- Economic justice

Schedule Type: Full-Time

About Us

For more than 50 years, Legal Services of the Hudson Valley (LSHV) has been providing free, high-quality legal counsel in civil matters when basic human needs are at stake including: eviction and foreclosure prevention, domestic violence, disability, elder law, healthcare, consumer fraud and more. Our services support almost 600,000 poor and low-income families and individuals who cannot afford an attorney in our seven-county service area. With the gap separating those who can and cannot afford legal representation widening each day, we work to ensure that everyone has equal access to justice, regardless of their ability to pay. As the only provider of comprehensive civil legal services in the lower and mid-Hudson Valley (Westchester, Putnam, Dutchess, Rockland, Orange, Ulster and Sullivan), LSHV is proud to have handled over 12,000 cases impacting nearly 27,500 household members including 10,000 children last year. LSHV is made up of ten offices, and a dedicated and highly skilled staff of attorneys, paralegals and administrative professionals.

Legal Services of the Hudson Valley is dedicated to building a highly skilled workforce that reflects the diverse communities we serve and where everyone feels empowered to bring their authentic selves to work. We are committed to racial justice and promoting equity for all, and we continuously review and strengthen our processes and practices to empower our staff, clients and the communities we serve. Respect is a cornerstone of relationships among our staff. Our affinity groups are self-directed and provide a space for members to support one another and their shared vision. We encourage applications from people of all identities.

Position Description

Legal Services of the Hudson Valley (LSHV) has an immediate opening in our Yonkers office for a full-time staff attorney to work on matters related to economic justice. Creditors – including but not limited to - credit card issuing banks, debt buyers, former landlords, medical facilities – bring high volumes of civil cases against low-income New Yorkers. Duties of the Position: The duties include intake and individual case work, litigation in state and federal courts, including appellate practice, and education and outreach efforts directed at community members and service providers. Individual case work will include both full representation for certain types of cases (for example complex rent arrears cases, cases with an intersection to economic abuse in a DV context) and coordination with volunteers to provide limited scope representation or brief service in cases throughout our service area. The person hired will also be expected to adhere to program and case handling standards, funder requirements, the highest professional standards, and be available as a resource to LSHV staff and access to justice communities.

Qualifications

- Member in good standing of the New York State Bar; or out of state admission with eligibility and willingness to be admitted in NYS.
- Two or more years of legal experience, including litigation, or its equivalent.
- Excellent people skills.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.

Preferred

- Ability to work effectively with a diverse group of stakeholders.
- Experience litigating housing cases and civil cases in city and Supreme courts in New York.
- Demonstrated commitment to serving low-income persons with prior experience in legal services or similar program.
- English/Spanish bilingual.

Salary: DOE, union scale, with excellent benefits. After a brief probationary period, this position may permit work from home up to two days per week.
