Legal Services of the Hudson Valley (LSHV) opened its first office in 1967 in White Plains, NY. Over time, LSHV has expanded to 10 offices, including a new fully staffed office in Monticello.

The mission of LSHV is to provide high-quality counsel in civil matters for low-income individuals and families and other vulnerable persons who do not have access to legal representation to maintain their basic needs and to pursue equity through dismantling systemic oppression.

LSHV continues to expand, enhance and build awareness of the high-quality, comprehensive, free civil legal services we provide in Sullivan County. Public transport in Sullivan and most parts of Orange are virtually nonexistent, which makes accessing our services difficult for most of our clients, as many do not have cars.

To help address this problem, in 2017, we opened a satellite office in Monticello with two rotating legal staff members. As of 2022, we now have a fully staffed office that includes lawyers and paralegals. We believe this significantly improves our accessibility to Sullivan County residents and helps us expand services to this area, which has a very high percentage of people living in poverty who need to be able to access free civil legal services.

LSHV works to ensure fairness in the justice system for those who can't afford an attorney when maintaining the basic necessities of life, such as food, shelter, and safety, are at risk.
